Mayor's Message

Join me at Brent Respect Festival and celebrate summer, Brent style.

Brent is proud to be one of the country's most diverse boroughs, home to many cultures, languages and religions. Brent Respect Festival is a showcase of this vibrant community with food, music, dance and activities reflecting our unique cultural mix.

I would like to thank the many local groups, artists, performers and traders who are taking part in Brent Respect 2010.

I look forward to seeing you there.

Councillor Harbhajan Singh

The Mayor of Brent

Brent Council Stalls

See what Brent Council has to offer with fun stalls and activities for all ages.

Mr and Mrs Quiz

Based on the popular ITV show, the quiz will test how well you know your other half.

Dance

Boogie on down with Sports Service's interactive dance mat.

Taster courses

Try out reflexology and henna hand tattooing.

Film

Visit Brent Learning Disabilities for Bollywood moves and tasty cakes and treats.

Boxing

Try free demonstrations by Stonebridge Boxing Club and see how Neighbourhood Working funds can help your organisation.

Make your mark

Create a figurine of yourself and make your mark on a giant map of Brent.

Dogs

Free, onsite micro chipping for dogs.

Children's activities

Paint a piggy bank, customise your own bag and enjoy children's entertainment with the Children's Services Fostering and Adoption team.

Volunteering

Find out how to volunteer for London 2012 and Brent Museum.

Art

Represent yourself by making a fabric flag and be part of an interactive art installation of Brent.

Dream jobs

Be a police officer for the day and explore a fire engine.

Dr Bike

Bring your bike along for a free service.

Global Food Flavours

Tour the globe with a mouth watering array of foods from around the world. Meet your neighbours at communal outdoor tables and let the flavours of Brent's cultural melting pot tempt your taste buds.

Try the exotic Flavours of Brent stalls run by locals. Flavours of Brent is a project commissioned by Brent Council to help local people set up a food stall business ahead of the London 2012 Games.

The Flavours of Brent project has been recognised by the London Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games (LOCOG) as a project which is truly inspired by the London 2012 Games and has been awarded the coveted London 2012 Inspire Mark.

Respect Bar

Take a break with a refreshing beverage at the Respect Bar.

Youth

Try your hand at the Respect Graffiti mural, test your skills at the DJ workshop or join basketball, football or double dutch competitions. Come along to the Brent Youth Bus for films, games, information and much more.

Roller Disco

Strap on your skates and show off your moves to 80s disco.

Markets

Join in fun activities and shop for gifts from Brent and around the world.

Site Art

Keep an eye out for this year's site art which will be taking on a wooden theme. Created from recycled materials, everything from palettes to doors will be given a new life as signs and giant robots...

Respect Film Tent

See short films and more in the Respect Film Tent. Visit the Lexi Cinema stall for a sneak preview of the Lexi Summer Screen programme, bringing outdoor cinema to Roundwood Park this September.

Children's Tent

Giraffe's Can't Dance. Decorating a giant giraffe named Gerald, face painting, mask making, story telling and dancing like a jungle animal are just part of the fun.

Carriage Rides

Take a ride though Roundwood Park in a horse drawn carriage courtesy of The Household Cavalry Mounted Regiment.

Fun Fair

All your favourite rides and funfair attractions.

Getting to Roundwood Park

We recommend you use public transport. The nearest tube/train station is Willesden Junction (Bakerloo Line, North London Line). It takes around ten minutes to walk from the station to Roundwood Park.

Buses 206 and 226 go directly to Roundwood Park.

Visit www.tfl.gov.uk or call 020 7222 1234 to plan your journey.

Brent Respect Festival is supporting the Take Refuge Festival, a programme of creative, educational and celebratory events within Brent as part of Refugee Week 2010. For details of the full programme or to book tickets, visit www.tricycle.co.uk.
